

You CAN Intentionally Create A Quantum Leap!

A four-month virtual hands-on intimate group transformational program focused on helping energy-sensitive entrepreneurs like you Quantum Leap to your next best level faster and easier, to create your potential as reality and actualize opportunities as never before.

Everything is energy – everything. That includes what’s happening in your business experience right now. And that means if you don’t like what’s happening, you’ve got to start creating something new by working with the source of it – the quantum energy.

Even more, you’ve got a unique reason for being here that will not be accomplished unless you do it. (More accurately, unless you BE it...) ;+)

Then there are the day-to-day concerns that will hold you back from living your best life – paying the bills, juggling responsibilities, having a life beyond your work, creating your legacy and living with a sense of happiness in the middle of all that.

Quantum Leaping gives you the ability to compress time, to boost your efforts to a point that is SO big that you soar to your next best level, to seemingly go from point A to point Z in a single bound.

But first, to be clear, here’s what it can look like when you’re NOT leaping:

- You feel stuck in what you’re doing, it takes too long to get results and it feels like WORK.
- You aren’t sure why you’re doing what you’re doing – only that it’s not enough / not working.
- You see opportunities only after they have passed you by because you couldn’t see them.
- You can’t see the bigger vision, much less how to fit anything new / more into your day anyway.
- You live from your old stories, allowing the past to dictate your present (and thus, your future).
- You find that your fear is bigger than your trust, your resistance stronger than your flow, your limits safer than the risk of the unknown.
- You are easily distracted by overwhelm, the ‘not knowing’ and pursuing dead ends.

It’s not a big stretch to see the value of a Quantum Leap when all that is going on, right?

Quantum Leaping Explained: A Preview Class Audio

There comes a time when YOU recognize that there has to be a way to make things easier, when your possibilities are beckoning you to be bolder and when you are ready to accelerate stepping into your next best level... I call that Quantum Leaping.

By harnessing the power of invisible quantum dynamics, you can activate your life and business to partner with you to create more of what you really want. It expands your ability to do more of what you love and make a bigger contribution to the world.

To learn more about Quantum Leaping, register for this free audio called 'Quantum Leaping Explained'.

You'll learn about:

- What Quantum Leaping can bring you
- The 5 things that could be holding you back right now
- The conscious Quantum Leaping formula
- How to intentionally activate quantum energies
- How to expand your Quantum Leaping experience

(Please note: this is truly a free audio! It's a preview of material that I cover in my programs. When you register with the Preview button below, the system asks you for your name and contact information, but there is no payment required to get it!)

The Quantum Solution

First, a quick definition: Quantum Leaping is the process by which an entity goes from one state of being to another without having to traverse the in-between zone.

Physicists describe it as an object disappearing and existing in a new state at the same time. Deepak Chopra says it's the equivalent of being able to travel from New York to New Delhi instantaneously without going through Europe. And you can use this exact process to get to your next best level quickly!

The Quantum Leaping Process has four essential parts:

- Clean Foundation
- Your Destiny
- Dynamic Transformation
- Energy Activation

Each of these builds upon the other and ensures that you are ready for what you are about to see, discover and experience at the next level.

The purpose of this program is to help you create awareness about how to tap your hidden potential and create your quantum leap into what you want as fast and easy as possible.

The Four Phases

The more that I worked with this material in creating a virtual program, the more I realized that there are four vital phases that must be included in a comprehensive program in order to create true and lasting transformation from a Quantum Leap.

- Your journey toward Quantum Leaping includes first guiding you in having a Clean Foundation, from which to launch your leap. You'll be considering who you are and what's been in the way of expressing that in new ways so you can release what is NOT you to be lighter for your leap. You'll close the 'loops' on your old stories, bust your personal myths, understand the shields you've been using to block incoming energy and then learn your personal patterns for fulfillment.
- Next, Your Destiny invites you to meet your Ultimate Self, create belief codes that work for you, expand your vision and discover new ways to open up your pathways to prosperity (and yes, that includes cash – and more!). It's about seeing the connections with and strengthening the 'pull' energy of your destiny.
- The third month of the program focuses on Dynamic Transformation, the phase of learning the specifics of your personal metamorphosis. You will be presented with your keys to living the transformation that is already occurring by this point, including symbolic sight, entrainment with your soul's wisdom and proactively creating through conscious decisions.
- Finally, the program wraps up with Energy Activation – the 'transcendental' part of your training. Now that you've set the stage for your leap by clearing away the debris of what's not you, seen the bigger vision of your life, received the profound insights presented through your dynamic transformation process, it's time to use tools designed to activate your quantum energies. You will learn the language of spirit, the power of personal rituals, vibrational resonance keys and how to handle your leap as it happens. It's going to be a big finale!!!

By the end of this program, you will have discovered things you never knew about yourself, as well as where you had hidden power potential (and how to tap into it) and how to create your Quantum Leap. And you'll be able to use these tools again and again to create quantum leaps anytime you want in the future too.

Areas In Which You Can Quantum Leap

We live in a positive Universe – you are NOT meant to struggle, suffer or live in poverty!

You're always attracting that which you need to get to your next best level, and when you have tools, support and guidance, you can do it a whole lot easier.

Some have said that a Quantum Leap means going to bed as you were and waking up as you are... others have said it's leaving the broken state of affairs behind and finding that all is right and perfect... still others said that it's about trusting that the flow between where you are now and where you're going will travel the quickest possible path to bring you to where you are supposed to be even if you don't know where that is. (There's a lot in that last one...) ;+)

Quantum leaping is a very personal process, and it has all your unique variables in it – no one's quantum leap will be the same, and yet, the participants in this program will all be moving energy in a big way, like you never have before, as a result of our work together here.

And, to be honest, I can't guarantee your results because of all the variables you might be facing... but that is why I've put an extensive structure and curriculum in place to support you in every way that I can foresee helpful. This program will show you how to do it... but the results are up to you.

We will be witnessing for each other, because none of us can see for ourselves our blind spots. This isn't about judgment – this is about holding space for the other, it's about reflecting back their greatness that they can't see, it's about helping the other to feel the warm embrace of strong support as they face the chasm that they will be leaping as a result of this program. (You can't leap a chasm in two jumps, right? It's a big deal...)

And you will be receiving the same kind of supportive energy. As you honor others, you are so honored.

The areas of your life and business that the Create Your Quantum Leap Intensive Program can help you create a quantum leap in include:

- Business: Build a business that you're truly passionate about and provides value
- Habits: Daily routines that give your life flow
- Relationships: Enjoy fulfilling relationships that help you grow and feel nurtured
- Reputation – Become more visible in what you are doing to attract new opportunities
- Creativity – Engage with new vibrancy in innovating solutions and playing in life
- Environment – Surround yourself with higher vibration sources of personal energy
- Health: Create a new relationship with your body that gives you vitality
- Spirituality: Raise your awareness and live more consciously
- Wealth: Money and more... Achieve abundance without compromising your integrity
- And Beyond...you name it and you can claim it!

As a result of the Create Your Quantum Leap Intensive Program, you'll actually be experiencing many 'mini-leaps' along the way, as each insight is a leap from where you were to who you are now.

This program will set your Quantum Leap in motion. You'll be making different choices because you are expanding your perception, your consciousness and your options as a result all that we'll be doing together in this intimate like-spirited community. You can reach your next best level faster and easier than you might think is possible.

How It Works

The Create Your Quantum Leap Intensive Program is leading-edge material, with weekly momentum for four months, and powered with support on multiple levels in a like-spirited, virtual community of just 12 participants.

There will be weekly 90-minute lectures that include Q & A sessions for personal comments and questions. These lectures will be recorded for you.

You will also have weekly 'buddy connections' of about 30 minutes outside of these lectures. Your buddies will rotate so you meet different people within the group, and the idea is that you have someone who can witness your growth and reflect back to you what you need to see; this requires you to be fully present for both yourself and your partner during these calls.

During the last week of the month, there will be a group Affinity Seats Laser Mentoring Session. This class will highlight three members who will receive personal laser mentoring while everyone listens in to support and learn at the same time. By the end of the four months, each person will have had one Affinity Seat session. These sessions will be recorded for you.

At your discretion, you also receive one personal 1:1 30-minute session with me per month (four total throughout the program) to integrate and apply your insights and ask your questions. This session can be recorded for you, with your direction.

You'll also receive several e-books and surprise 'bonus' materials.

And the end of the program will wrap up with a manual that captures and summarizes all the teachings, discoveries, tools and exercises from within the program.

Altogether, you should plan on spending 3 – 5 hours / week on the material and activities of this program. (I want you to know that in advance...) ;+)

What To Do Now

If you feel that this program is something that can help you create your Quantum Leap, and you feel you're ready to do it, given the group environment of the program, I will be reviewing applications for consideration in the program. You'll need to complete the application and email that to me.

I'll be reviewing the applications in the order received to see how this group is coming together. If there are more applicants than spots (which I anticipate). Both because I anticipate more applicants than spots, and because I want to review your information, I'll be calling you for a brief conversation to answer any questions you might have and to learn more about you. And remember - you need to be ready to go once we agree that this is a good fit.

One Last Thought

This program can literally change your life. It requires your commitment to your own self growth as well as Quantum Leaping. Pay attention to where you invest your time and energy before you've chosen to invest your financial resources and see the results you've gotten so far... often, I suspect, you'll find that it's only really held you back as you've 'frittered' yourself away with nothing to really show for it. (I know it because I've done it too...) ;+)

That's not what this program is about... this really is about your journey to lasting freedom through Quantum Leaping. You will be creating new paradigms, living with fresh momentum, feeling the flow of effortless new opportunities, resources and relationships that can help take you to your next best level. And it can happen quicker than you might think... that's the power of a Quantum Leap.

So, if you'd like an application to join the program, please click here asap so I can get that to you and we can get things moving. Why put your Quantum Leap off any longer? ;+)

Lynn Scheurell
Acceleration Catalyst

In the words of my clients:

"I want to share how grateful I am for Lynn's Create Your Quantum Leap Program. Before enrolling, my business was unpredictable and not moving forward the way I had hoped. I'm only half way through the program and I'm already quantum leaping. I've had the most clients in one month ever. I've gained more confidence in myself and my services that I'm offering because of the unwavering support Lynn provides. I have participated in many other coaching programs but Lynn's is the by far the best. It's evident that she really cares about our success. Every time I sent her an email with a question, it was answered immediately. The one-on-one coaching sessions I had with Lynn were incredible. She generously shares her wisdom and insights, she's totally supportive and she holds nothing back. I also enjoy the buddy connections which is part of this program.

It's great to connect with other like-minded entrepreneurs to gain insights and a sense of community. I am excitedly awaiting more leaps!"

"The Quantum Leap program has changed the way I look at myself in my business. The connections I've made within the group and with Lynn have been valuable in providing an objective look into my world. I've made changes that I know will benefit both me and my business and I'm feeling very excited about seeing how they evolve! "

~ Christine Clifton, Denville, NJ

"No matter where you are on your journey, Lynn Scheurell has the amazing capacity to meet you where you are and catapult you into hidden dimensions of awareness to build a strong foundation for initiating quantum leaps into new territory and essential life changes. With the support of her transformational well-spring of expertise and the wider view of group dynamics, this course has created surprisingly magical results – allowing me to step into the world with the magnetism of authenticity and greater ease. Thank you Lynn for being the creative catalyst extraordinaire!"

~ Janice Mark, www.hualani.ca

"This results I've been seeing from this program are nothing short of phenomenal. I came into the program stuck, frustrated and unclear in regard to my business. Halfway through the program I began seeing huge shifts that I didn't even anticipate I would experience. Today I'm extremely clear and entire new worlds have opened up for me! I now have confidence, clarity, and a feeling of acceleration and momentum. Both me and my business have been growing by leaps and bounds. Opportunity has been showing up absolutely everywhere for me. I cannot recommend this program enough to anyone who has a business or who is even thinking about starting a business. There truly is something magical about it... and whatever it is... it's working! Lynn has blown more doors off... once again!"

"Last night's call really inspired me with ideas for a business I'd enjoy. I was really taken with the model of interviewing experts about what I'm passionate about... I forget how you're able to inspire ideas, open windows (and doors too!). I'm sorry I've missed so many opportunities to gain more of that knowledge, missing the morning calls. I'm impressed with how positive you are... That inspires me! I agree that something big is coming... that {my} Quantum Leap is happening. Out of discomfort will come that major change. Go Quantum Leap!!! THANK YOU!!!"

~ Mary Kay Lundberg

"Thank you so much for this evening and all of the classes, Lynn. If I did nothing else but what came out of this class I could be busy and progressing for years, I am sure. I love going and growing under your tutelage. This is all nothing that I have ever been exposed to or considered as possible for me. For that, and for you, I am grateful. You are amazing and I thank you for sharing your gifts with me and the world. I have this image of all of the people who work with you shining just a little bit brighter in each of their own corners of the world. It's a great vision to behold."
