

Igniting Your Business Soul 2007

What if in three to six months you could transform your business, your bank account, and your relationships?

Do you see the correlation between who you are and what you choose to do with your life?

If your business reflects your ability to manifest, is it time for an upgrade?

Date: Sunday, February 25, 2007 from 8:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Place: Palm Desert UC Campus, Center for Entrepreneurs

Cost: $197 (That's for a full day of information, connections and includes a catered lunch!)

Registration Website: www.IgniteYourBusinessSoul.com

Email: info@mycreativecatalyst.com

Phone: 760.534.4770

The one-day Igniting Your Business Soul 2007 seminar is about getting you back in touch with who you are to project your power to create meaningful change and grow your business. As you gain clarity, everything you are and do becomes bigger – including your business. When we business owners are clear, our businesses thrive.

Learn four essential steps to igniting your business soul for this year...

- 1) more about your true essential self's purpose
- 2) where you can align your business to express that purpose
- 3) how to distill your distinct, "true" message into real world applications
- 4) leveraging cutting-edge Internet technology to increase your visibility.

After working with approximately 3,000 people, and their various businesses, over the last eight years, and for the first time ever, Lynn Scheurell, the Creative Catalyst, is finally putting it all together to share it with people like you - a proactive business owner who knows there is more waiting for you.

Lynn M. Scheurell is a Professional Catalyst, Certified Feng Shui Practitioner and Life Change Mentor. She brings a special blend of nearly 20 years of entrepreneurial and corporate experience, as well as highly developed sensitivity, extensive metaphysical training and positive energy to her clients. For more information on this seminar and on her company, please visit www.MyCreativeCatalyst.com.